

Committee : International Trade

---

Published at: 17-03-2008

The Committee is responsible for the relations with the World Trade Organization (WTO), EU trade policy and external economic relations, in particular relations with third countries and regional organizations; harmonization in the areas settled by international regulations, as well as issues concerning the regional economic and commercial integration outside the Union.