

Published at: 17-03-2008

The Committee is responsible for the coordination of national legislation at Community level in the field of EU internal market and the Customs Union, in particular concerning the free movement of goods, including harmonization of technical standards and measures aimed at establishing and eliminating potential obstacles to internal market functioning.