Committee : Regional Development

Published at: 17-03-2008

The Committee on Regional Development is in charge of regional and cohesion policy-making, and in particular: the European Regional Development Fund, European Cohesion Fund and other regional policy instruments. The Committee is also engaged in transborder and intraregional development, relations with the Committee on Regions, as well as with organizations for intraregional cooperation, local and regional authorities.

Copyrights © 2003-2007 Europe.bg