

Online discussion with Petya Stavreva

Published at: 29-07-2008

"Now - Interacting with the European Parliament!" Initiative launches a series of Internet discussions with representatives of the European Parliament on diverse current and important to EU citizens topics.

On Wednesday - 30 July, 10:00 a.m. BG time, starts a discussion on "EU and the crisis with food and fuel prices". The main guest of the event will be Mrs. Petya Stavreva MEP /EPP-ED-BZNS-NS/GERB-Citizens for the European Development of Bulgaria/.

The discussion will take place on the following address: <http://chat.europe.bg/>.

After the end of the discussion, our team will publish its full text.

You can also ask questions in advance! - EUROPE Gateway is ready to accept them instantly - info@europe.bg

The working language of the discussion is Bulgarian but the questions and comments by citizens of other EU Member States may also be in French, English and Deutsch.

<http://parliament.europe.bg/> is the website of the "Now - Interacting with the European Parliament!" Initiative implemented with the financial support of the European Parliament.
