

Online discussion with Zita Gurmai and Marusya Lyubcheva MEPs – “The fight against child trafficking in the EU”

Published at: 09-10-2008

The Hungarian MEP Zita Gurmai (PES) and her Bulgarian colleague Marusya Lyubcheva (PES) will participate in a real time online-discussion on Monday, October 13, at 11:00 Bulgarian time (10:00 Brussels time).

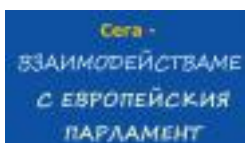

The discussion will take place at <http://chat.europe.bg> within the framework of the initiative “Now - interacting with the European Parliament!”

Ms Zita Gurmai, Ms Marusya Lyubcheva, Ms Diana Wallis, Ms Eva-Britt Svensson and Ms Anna Zaborska, members of the European Parliament, have put forward the Written Declaration on combating the trafficking of children. It was adopted by the MEPs with overwhelming majority in September.

Ms Zita Gurmai is a Vice-Chairman of the Committee on Women’s Rights and Gender Equality and she is a member of the Committee on Regional Development.

The working language is English. We look forward to receiving your questions and comments in Bulgarian, English, French and German - in real time at <http://chat.europe.bg>, as well as in advance at info@europe.bg and parliament@europe.bg.

After the discussion our team will publish the full text.

The initiative “Now - interacting with the European Parliament!” <http://parliament.europe.bg>, which is implemented with the financial support of the EP, involves a series of Internet-discussions with representatives of EU institutions on diverse topics currently of interest to European citizens.
