Ognian Boyadjiev, editor in chief of Europe.bg, presented to the French audience the book "Europe 2020 - Civic Vision", which summarizes the conclusion of the two-year long campaign "Interacting with the European Parliament".

Mrs. Lubov Panayotova, director of the European Institute, talked about the previous and possible future enlargements of the European Union, stressing on the lessons learned, the so-called absorption capacity and the difficulties and particularities of the negotiations process of the various member states with Brussels.

Mr Alain Barrau, head of the EP information bureau for France, talked about the perspectives of the countries, which are candidates for EU membership, in the context of the public opinion and the economic and financial crisis.

Mrs. Elvire Fabry - reseracher at "Notre Europe" stressed on the Spanish EU Presidency and the public consultations of the Commission Strategy "EU 2020". She compared the fate of the Lisbon Strategy with the way in which the new strategy is being drafted.
