Pictures taken at the round table, which took place in Paris on 22 April 2010, focusing on the future enlargement and the civic vision about Europe in 2020.

The event was organized by the European Institute Foundation, the Center for Policy Modernization and Europe Gateway in partnership with Touteurope.fr and the EP Information Bureau in Paris, which hosted the event.

This round table is part of the EP-funded project "Interacting with the European Parliament".

Mrs. Laura Dagg, Chief Editor of the European news portal Touteurope.fr - media partner to this initiative - opened the round table.

Ognian Boyadjiev, editor in chief of Europe.bg, presented to the French audience the book "Europe 2020 - Civic Vision", which summarizes the conclusion of the two-year long campaign "Interacting with the European Parliament".

The other participants were Mrs. Lubov Panayotova - director of the European Institute, Mr. Guillaume Jobin, president of ESJ - Ecole Supérieure de Journalisme de Paris, Mrs. Elvire Fabry - researcher at "Notre Europe", as well as ESJ students.
