

The European Communities Personnel Selection Office (EPSCO) was established on 26 July 2002. Its mission is to organise open competitions to select highly qualified staff for recruitment to all institutions of the European Union, namely the European Parliament, the Council, the European Commission, the Court of Justice, the Court of Auditors, the Economic and Social Committee the Committee of the Regions and the European Ombudsman. EPSCO became fully operational on 1 January 2003.

Its aim is to provide the public with free access to reliable information about recruitment to the EU institutions and to make best use of information technology to improve the management of selection procedures.

Any commercial site providing information relating to EPSCO's selection procedures, does so without the approval of EPSCO. EPSCO declines any responsibility for the contents of such sites. EPSCO also declines responsibility for the contents of any web site other than the official EPSCO web site.

Official website